MOF Records was the first professional studio he worked in and became known as a *songwriter*, between 2004-2006. Here he recorded his first commercial success by doing the orchestration and mastering for Delia's "Sufletul meu". This success was followed by "Razna" –HiQ, "Strada mea" –TnT, etc.

While working at Gala Records, 2006-2008, he had a close collaboration with Laurentiu Duta (co-owner of the studio at the time) and they produced together one of the biggest hits of 3SE –"Iubire". “ Sexy thing”, a featuring with Dony, revolutionized the sound of techno-dance music in Romania and across Europe giving birth to the so-called musical style Popcorn. He collaborated with Dony for an entire album called, of course, “ Popcorn”. The promoted singles from this album “ Sexy thing”, “ Nasty dream”, “ So bizzare” and “ Temptation” went straight to number 1 in Romanian charts and performed well in other countries. For two years in a row (2008 –2009), David Dj was the most airplayed Romanian artist in Romanian Top 100. He was awarded the prestigious “ Trend Setter Award” at the Romanian Music Awards in 2009, in recognition of his merits in terms of changing the house sound in Europe. The following year, 2010, he received “ Best Producer Award” and “ Best DJ Award” at the Romanian Music Awards.

In addition to those, David Dj was awarded the “ Best see dance track” at South-East European Music Event 2010, with “ SO bizzare” hit featuring Dony.

As an experienced *DJ*, he has a very intuitive nature and love for the house music. This made it easy for him to understand perfectly the connection between working in studio, the club music and his audience. The years spent mixing in clubs helped him develop a very strong perception of what kind of rhythms people react best in clubs. Very often he played his demo tracks in clubs, as a test, in order to receive firsthand the public’ s reaction. Therefore, all his hits “ passed” the club test before being released. He played and mixed in the biggest clubs from Romania, Europe and he is the only Romanian Dj invited to mix in Australia.

His work as *producer* was recognized internationally starting in 2006 when he co-produced Akcent’ s smashing hits: “ Jokero” and “ French KISS". Once he set up his own studio he became more productive as he released several projects with international success in just a couple of years: David DeeJay feat. Dony, Ela Rose, Mossano, Morris. The songs he produced were licensed in countries like Albany, Australia, Belgia, Bulgaria, China, Cyprus, France (+ Dom Tom), Greece, Israel, Italy, Japan, Luxemburg, Monaco, Olanda, Poland, Portugal, Russia + CIS, Scandinavia, Turkey, UK & Eire; whole American Continent, Middle East and Southern Asia.

So far David Dj' s work as a producer has made a big impact in music which resulted in gigs all over the world as *DAV7Music* became more than a studio. It`s also a management agency for David himself and the artists he produces. DAV7Music manages and promotes them in Romania and internationally.

Now you can see David Dj performing as a single act with vocalists Dony, Ela Rose or P Jolie & Nonis, or back-to-back with MOSSANO.
